For smooth conduct of examinations, the office strictly follows the Ordinances relating to the conduct of Examinations in terms of appointment of the Paper- Setters, Examiners, and Moderators. Provisions of appointing external examiners/personnel also help to bring in transparency in rigorously followed process of examinations. The existence of the Examination Review Committee, Board of Studies, and Expert Committee extends its guidance in analysing the result and envisage taking appropriate remedial and corrective measures from time to time. Degree Examinations are held in 61 numbers of General Degree colleges and constituent Colleges affiliated to the University under Home Centre basis. But for Practical Examinations the student of one college has to visit the University or the other colleges as directed by the Under Graduate Council. Moreover, B.Ed Examinations are being held in 13 numbers of colleges under Home Away System. PG and Law examinations are held on Home Centre in their respective departments and colleges. To maintain the sanctity of the University Examinations, all affiliated Colleges of various districts are generally categorised under five regions. For each region, one Chief Regional observer is generally appointed who along with members selected from other colleges of that region visits the examination centres to ensure smooth conduct of the University examinations. In addition the Central Visiting Team of the University pays about 15/20 surprise visits to the various college examination centres to observe and maintain the sanctity of the University Examinations. The impact of the practice so far adopted has ushered in tremendous quantitative and qualitative changes. Publication of examination results have been made regular. Resultantly, the commencement of the Academic Session has been made regular. Since the examinations are held strictly on the basis of a yearly Academic Calendar, a minimum of 180 teaching days have been ensured in the colleges as well as in the University Departments. Involvement of the teachers has been assured. Computerized Examination process has made the system almost error free. Fairness and transparency have been assured. The ongoing examination reforms have also been playing a responsible role in the success rate of the students appearing for University examinations as is evident from the statistics of the success Rate for last Five years (Annexure II).

The presence of the Board of Discipline for dealing with the cases of malpractices while conducting University Examinations is also helpful in resisting the malaise of the malpractices adopted in the examination halls. ➤ Spot Evaluation

Results of all Examinations are published within the reasonable time frame. On the spot evaluation, introduced since 2000, has been one of the important causes of bringing regularity in publication of results. The spot Evaluation is conducted with utmost confidentiality and sincerity. The Examiners from various colleges act as Evaluators, Scrutinisers, and Head Examiners. The names of the examiners, scrutinizers, Head Examiners, Re-assessors Scrutinisers are recommended by the respective Board of Studies under the Chairmanship of University teachers, generally at professor level. In the spot evaluation on an average fifty per day evaluators are available during the period of spot evaluation which continues for a period of nearly thirty days at a stretch. For spot evaluation appointment letters inviting teachers are sent to colleges at least two months earlier from the date of his assessment. The Spot Evaluation is done compulsorily for the final year i.e. UG Part-III examinations. For other students, in the Part-I and Part-II, the answer scripts are generally sent to the colleges, even to the residence of the Examiners so that the result can be published in stipulated time. On decline to evaluate the answer-scripts by the Examiners, the spot evaluation is also conducted for all such declined answer scripts on emergency basis. For the purpose of the Spot Evaluation, the Teachers are provided with residence in the University Guest House or in nearby Hotels.

However, for the Post Publication Reassessment/Scrutiny the Spot Evaluation is conducted for all categories of students irrespective of their part/year of studentship to maintain the Academic Calendar stipulation. On-the-Spot payment policy of Remuneration, Travelling Allowance and Daily Allowance bills also provide impetus to work on any examination related assignment.

In addition, the Spot evaluation for the PG examination is not arranged because of the in-campus availability of the teachers in their departments. However, the evaluated answer scripts are also sent to the external reassessors on recommendation by the concerned PG Board of Studies.
