

CELEBRATION OF GANDHI JAYANTI AT N.B.U ON 2ND OCTOBER 2022 FROM 11 AM TO 1 PM

On 2nd October 2022, Gandhi Jayanti was celebrated at the Conference Hall, NBU. In the said programme the following persons were present on the dais: Prof. Om Prakash Mishra (VC, N.B.U), Prof. Rathin Bandyopadhyay (Dean ACL), Prof. Samar Kumar Biswas (President NBUTC), Manash Esh (information Scientist), Amit Gupta (Employee, USIC) .

The programme was presided over by the Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor Prof. Om Prakash Mishra. The programme started with garlanding by different persons present in the conference hall and paying tribute to Gandhiji. The programme was coordinated by Prof. Rathin Bandyopadhyay (Dean ACL) and Prof. Samar Kumar Biswas (President NBUTC). Thereafter, the following persons delivered a brief speech about Gandhiji, his philosophy and life; Prof. Rathin Bandyopadhyay, Kousik Joarder, prof. Min Bahadur, Amit Gupta, Prof. Jyotish Chandra Basak, Dr. B.K.Jha (Group A officer, Govt. of India, CAG, Gangtok), Manash Esh, Soumadeep Acharya (a Class XII student of Air Force School Bagdogra), Ratan Das (Research Scholar). While delivering his brief speech, the Honorable Vice Chancellor, Prof. Om Prakash Mishra gave a brief introduction to Gandhian philosophy.

He explained that although India progressed remarkably in terms of public health, an increase in life expectancy, food security, minimum wages and wage guarantee for the working class but Gandhi Ji's philosophy of life can further contribute to enriching life and the environment. Culture and cultivation of Gandhian Philosophy are no less relevant in the present-day context to ensure India's growth potential in the global context of the present century. At the end of the programme, Dr. Tamal Sarkar gave a vote of thanks to all the participants of the programme.
