CIRCULAR

In order to provide a platform for showcasing the creative and entrepreneurship skills of the students and research scholars of NBU as well as an endeavor towards extension activities, the University of North Bengal is going to organize NBU Campus Carnival 2024 (NBUCC 2024) on the 18th December, 2024, where the innovative minds will showcase sustainable agri and floricultural product and produce, handicrafts, etc. The said platform is also extended to the interested and willing local farmers and craftsmen of the region for showcasing their organic products.

The carnival will be held from 11 am to 4 pm on the scheduled date on the pavements of main entry road of the University from Gate No. 2 to Ram Mohan statue where temporary stalls will be erected with support from the SashtraSeemaBal(SSB). A cultural podium will also be installed in front of the Rabindra-BhanuManch garden where interested students and research scholars may voluntarily perform cultural songs and dances. Interested students and research scholars those who want to showcase their products and/or produce are requested to submit their names to Dr. Binayak Sundas, Assistant Professor, Centre for Himalayan Studies and Coordinator, Subcommittee for Students Affairs, NBUCC 24 latest by 10th December, 2024. It may kindly be noted that no plastic flex would be allowed in the stalls.

The University cordially invites all the University stakeholders and their families to join the carnival and encourage the innovative minds.
